Exam Exemption Policy

1 absence must have an 78 or higher
2 absences must have an 85 or higher

3 absences must have a 93 or higher
More than 3 absences student must take all exams.

All students with a 77 or below must take all exams

No Saturday detention, ISS or OSS.

Two class tardies = 1 absence for exam purposes. Each tardy must be documented in NCWISE.

If a student takes an AP exam, he/she is exempt from taking a class exam in that AP course. If the student has pre-paid the money to take the exam, this will count as proof of exemption.

*This policy does not apply to an EOC or VOCATS class. There are no exam exemptions when a student takes an EOC or a CTE class.

General Information

No exams are to be given early without the permission of S. Bradshaw.

Students may not wear pajamas or bedroom slippers to school. This includes exam days. All dress code policies apply.

There is open parking in all lots.

Attendance

Please remind all students who are working towards perfect attendance they must attend an exam period or afternoon class for all four days (even if they are exempt for exams) to maintain their perfect attendance status/participate in athletics.

Please make sure any student who plans to leave after their exam turns in their note and signs out. Students will need to give their dismissal note to the teacher prior to leaving the classroom.

Early Dismissals

The early dismissal students are to be outside of the building within 10 minutes of the dismissal announcement or by 11:40 a.m. Teachers: Please monitor the hallways since the administration will be monitoring outside.

9th grade students will be picked up in the school bus lot.

10th grade students will be picked up at the front entrance.

11th and 12th graders are to be picked up in the gym parking lot.

Lunch Period

Any student not leaving at dismissal will report to lunch and the period for that day. At the end of the lunch period if a student has not been picked up, they will report to the last class of the day. If a student doesn't eat during the lunch period, then they will not have another opportunity to eat lunch. The office will call for the student when their ride arrives.
