

A little bit of this; a little bit of that...

Just a few notes from Mrs. Lamb! Our first newsletter will come home next week. Until then, be sure to read this memo and return the bottom portion with your student as soon as possible.

Scholastic News Magazine! Two words---It ROCKS! I love using Scholastic magazine as much as we can to not only read up on current events, but to practice all the strategies readers use to read magazines! It's tough work paying attention to all the features of nonfiction...pictures, bold print, definitions, text boxes and captions. Students need lots of practice with this. And guess what!? 60% of the EOG is nonfiction! Whoa!

That said, each student will get a weekly magazine to bring home after we use it in class. The subscription is $4.25 per student, but I ask that you send in $4 to cover your child's. If you would like to send 5 to help out other families {and me =)} go right ahead!

I need your email address!

You will have access to class pictures through a password protected website this year. I need your email address to add you as a member of our site! No one sees your kiddo's pictures but other classroom families. This feels safer than posting on my website. I will also send weekly newsletters through email rather than paper copies. Please provide anyone's email who wants to keep "in the know" with us!
